5. Norfolk Southern Railway Co. is a publicly held corporation with its corporate headquarters located in Norfolk, Virginia. Norfolk Southern RR has substantial operations in the Northern District of Ohio, including a major rail yard in Cleveland. Defendant is a railroad transportation company that operates approximately 21,000 route miles in 22 eastern, mid-western, and southern states and the District of Columbia and provides connections to other rail carriers. The acts set forth in this complaint were authorized, ordered, performed, approved, and/or ratified by Defendant’s officers, executives, managers, agents, employees, and/or representatives while actively engaged in execution of Defendant’s business. Defendant is an “employer” under Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and under OFEPA, and is subject to § 1981.

IV. ADMINISTRATIVE EXHAUSTION

6. Plaintiff has fulfilled all of the conditions precedent to the institution of this action under Title VII.

7. On or about November 3, 2008, Plaintiff filed a timely charge of race discrimination with the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, which, upon information and belief, was cross-filed with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. He alleged that his employer, the Defendant herein, was discriminating against him on the basis of race, color, and retaliation.

8. On September 22, 2009, the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission issued to Plaintiff a Right to Sue Notice based on the conclusion of the EEOC's administrative processing of the Plaintiff's charge against Norfolk Southern RR. The Plaintiff is filing this complaint within 90 days of his receipt of the Notice of Right to Sue.

9. Plaintiff's claims arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1981 do not require administrative exhaustion.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. Plaintiff began his employment with Norfolk Southern RR in October 1992. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff worked in and around Defendant's Ohio facilities, with some travel to parts of the Norfolk Southern RR system outside of Ohio.

11. Plaintiff's current job title is Road Foreman of Engines. Generally, his job entails training and evaluating locomotive engineers.

12. Plaintiff has applied for at least eight (8) employment positions for which he was qualified. He was denied each and every such position, and, upon information and belief, the person(s) selected were, or included, lesser qualified whites. In all but one instance, Plaintiff was not even interviewed for the positions.

13. In 2008, Plaintiff received a less-favorable-than-deserved performance evaluation, which he did not deserve and reflected poorly on his employment record.

14. On several occasions, Defendant required Plaintiff to work when Plaintiff was seriously ill, and when he was on vacation, despite the availability of white employees to do the work.

15. On or about August 18, 2008, Plaintiff was working at Norfolk Southern RR's crew base in Toledo, Ohio, having been ordered to work even though he was ill by his supervisor, white male Harold Lantz Blanton.

16. At that time, Blanton ordered Plaintiff to drive a railroad locomotive engine simulator from Toledo, Ohio, to Conway, Pennsylvania, a distance of more than 200 miles. Plaintiff explained that he was ill and could barely walk

17. When Plaintiff was hunched over with abdominal pain, Blanton pulled a handgun from his company service vehicle, and, brandishing the gun, said to Plaintiff, "Turn around and let me shoot you in the back of your head and put you out of your misery."

18. Plaintiff was put in severe danger and felt that his life was being threatened.

19. Blanton reiterated his order to Plaintiff to make the trip the Conway, stating that Plaintiff could rest when he got to Conway. Plaintiff drove the simulator to Conway, then had to take a taxicab from Conway back to his home in Sandusky, Ohio.

20. The next morning, Plaintiff went to his family physician, who sent Plaintiff to a hospital, where Plaintiff underwent tests revealing sigmoid diverticulitis with an abscess formation.

21. Plaintiff was subsequently hospitalized and underwent emergency surgery.

22. In October, 2008, after having surgery to address his illness, Plaintiff complained to Defendant's management that it should take strong steps to address Blanton's egregious conduct in August, 2008.

23. Defendant's management made it clear to Plaintiff that it did not want to address the incident. Management then took only minimal, ineffective steps to address Blanton's conduct in this incident.

24. In January, 2009, Defendant sent Plaintiff correspondence that indicated that his employment would be terminated. However, Plaintiff was not terminated and he returned to work on or about March 19, 2009.

25. On several occasions, Blanton made racial comments about black men, in particular in regard to their having relations with white women.

26. Plaintiff has a white girlfriend, and this fact is known to Blanton.

27. The employer's management was aware of the racist acts by Blanton, but took no action to stop or prevent their recurrence, and took inadequate measures to punish Blanton for his harassment and abuses of the Plaintiff, including threatening Plaintiff with the handgun and ordering Plaintiff to work when Plaintiff was seriously ill.

28. Defendant employer engaged in, condoned, and ratified the racially harassing and discriminatory conduct toward Plaintiff which resulted in a racially hostile work environment. Despite knowing of the racial harassment against Plaintiff, Defendant did not take prompt, effective remedial action.
